DEMOS

I've been invited to demonstrate at the Renaissance Festival, - a good chance for me to work on the tons of wool I've been collecting. Come try the wheel and maybe collect some for your own knit or crochet projects.

A demo loom will also be set up and visitors are welcome to try their hand. Come visit, see the woven items & handspun yarn available and let's talk about how these things are actually made.

DID YOU KNOW...

How old is the oldest cloth?

- ancient Egypt
- ancient Turkey
- Medieval monasteries

The Tigris/Euphrates valley of Turkey is the site of the oldest cloth found, a scrap of linen dated at 7000 B.C.

How do Renaissance arts of Shakespeare's Britain vary from the Renaissance arts of DaVinci's Italy?

This one will take pages, but suffice to say Leonardo predated Shakespeare, and the Renaissance was just getting started. Shakespeare helped expand the growing need for beauty... in art, dress, and language.

My demos ongoing, Saturday only.

3pm - Showtime (about 7pm)
